1. Who are these, like stars ap - pear - ing, These be - fore God's throne who stand?
2. Who are these of daz - ling bright-ness, These in God's own truth ar - rayed,
3. These are they who have con - tend - ed For their Sa - vior's ho - nor long,
4. These are they whose hearts were riv - en, Sore with woe and an - guish tried,
5. These, like priests, have watched and wait - ed, Off - ring up to Christ their will;

Each a gold - en crown is wear - ing; Who are all this glo - rious band?
Clad in robes of pur - est white-ness, Robes whose lus - ter ne'er shall fade,
Wrest - ling on till life was end - ed, Foll' - wing not the sin - ful throng;
Who in prayer full oft have striv - en With the God they glo - ri - fied;
Soul and bo - dy con - se - cra - ted, Day and night to serve Him still:

Al - le - lu - ia! Hark, they sing, Prais - ing loud their heav'n - ly King.
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand - Whence come all this glo - rious band?
These who well the fight sus - tained, Tri - umph through the Lamb have gained.
Now, their pain - ful con - flict o'er, God has bid them weep no more.
Now in God's most ho - ly place Blest they stand be - fore His face.
