

1. Bread of heav'n, on Thee we feed, For Thy Flesh is meat in-deed;
2. Vine of heav'n, Thy Blood sup-plies This blest cup of sac-ri-fice;

The first system of the hymn features two staves, treble and bass, in the key of D major (two sharps). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a steady rhythm. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with two verses provided. The first verse begins with '1. Bread of heav'n, on Thee we feed, For Thy Flesh is meat in-deed;' and the second verse begins with '2. Vine of heav'n, Thy Blood sup-plies This blest cup of sac-ri-fice;'. The system concludes with a double bar line.

Ev - er may our souls be fed With this true and liv - ing Bread,
'Tis Thy wouds our heal - ing give; To Thy Cross we look and live:

The second system continues the melody from the first system. The lyrics are 'Ev - er may our souls be fed With this true and liv - ing Bread, 'Tis Thy wouds our heal - ing give; To Thy Cross we look and live:'. The system concludes with a double bar line.

Day by day with strength sup-plied Through the life of Him who died.
Thou our life! O let us be Root - ed, graft-ed, built on Thee.

The third system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are 'Day by day with strength sup-plied Through the life of Him who died. Thou our life! O let us be Root - ed, graft-ed, built on Thee.' The system concludes with a double bar line.
